

Maths

Multiplication and division
 Geometry 2D and 3D shape
 Statistics: children will make tally charts and bar graphs based on favourite food and drink as well as types of exercise.
 Fractions – fractions of shapes and numbers.
 Measurement – the children will measure height and length using rulers and tape measures.

Article 17

You have the right to get information in lots of ways – so long as it's safe.

English

Writing: developing skills in report writing and writing stories. Be able to vary the way sentences begin to make writing more interesting and use more exciting language.
Reading: looking at information that is presented in different ways and locating the relevant information quickly. Using different clues within the text to answer questions.
Phonics and Grammar: Continue to develop knowledge of different digraphs for spelling and to use apostrophes to show possession.

Geography

Be able to describe human and physical features in the local environment and develop geographical skills through the study of a place.
 Identify different places in Cockerton using a map.
 Make own map of Cockerton and devise a simple key.

MFL

- Ask people questions
- Listen to a story in French.
- Learn the days of the week

Article 6

You have the right to live and grow.

History

Children will compare the lives of Mary Seacole and Florence Nightingale. They will plot significant events on a time line and discover what changes were brought about as a result of the work of these two women.

Article 24

You have the right to the best health care, safe water, nutritious food and a clean, safe environment.

R.E

The following questions will be the focus:
 Why the bible is special to Christians?
 How do Christians celebrate Easter?

Year 2 Spring Term Topic/theme: Dirty Beasts

Music

Pitch, rhythm, pulse and dynamics will be explored through rock music. The children will begin to record compositions using pictorial representations or written labels.

DT

Food and nutrition: Children will learn where food comes from and what makes a healthy meal. They will look at recipes and make food which looks appealing.

Computing

The class will film the steps of a recipe and edit the information to make it appealing to an audience.

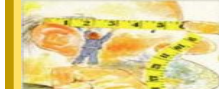

Know that information put on-line leaves a digital trail.

Know what algorithms are and follow precise instructions.

Science

The children will investigate the life cycles of different animals including humans.
 They will investigate what humans and other animals need to survive.
 They will find out about the importance of exercise, diet and the need for good hygiene.

Jim and the Beanstalk Raymond Briggs

Class Novel:

Jim and The Beanstalk

Art

Printing: Children will explore printing by using different equipment and materials to print with.
Working with colour: know what happens when the primary colours are mixed.

Seal/SMSC/Rights Respecting

Going for goals: Children will learn how to set themselves a goal and look at the steps that will help them to achieve it.
It's good to be me: Children will learn how to be positive about themselves and identify their strengths.

PE

Ball games: children will use their ball skills to compete in simple competitive games. They will also develop their strength and stamina.